

Board Members of Adullam Homes Housing Association Limited

The role of the voluntary Board member is to act as a guardian of the Association's Mission and Values, to work constructively with other Board Members and Association employees to ensure that the Association is managed and controlled appropriately and to promote the good name of the Association at all times.

Our Mission: Restoring hope and dignity through quality housing and support

Our Values: Valuing the individual, integrity and fairness and striving for excellence

	Anne Bishop: (Chair) Anne started working life in a small Christian charity, where she spent five years learning about charity administration and management, as well as publicity and fund-raising. She then moved into public relations, gaining her Dip CAM and entry to the Institute of Public Relations in the 1990s. Most recently she has completed an MBA at Oxford Brookes Business School, during which she carried out research into performance measurement within UK charities, and now works as the General Manager for Faithworks, Poole. Anne is the wife of a Baptist minister, became Vice-Chair of Adullam in July 2005, and Chair in September 2006, and she also is a member of the Remuneration Committee.
	David Priaulx : (Vice Chair) David keenly applies his extensive management skills and experience from working as part of a management team within a large manufacturing and supply company towards the voluntary housing sector. In addition to his work experience David is involved with the Methodist Church as Church Treasurer, Circuit Steward, Senior Church Steward and Property Secretary. David has taken an active part in local education, being a School Governor and Chairman of the Parent Teacher Association. David serves on the Audit and Compliance Committee as well as the main Board of Management, becoming Vice Chair in September 2006.
	Rob Ewen : Rob was re-appointed to the Board at the September 2005 AGM. Rob has over twenty years business experience in the construction and property sectors. Rob originally qualified as an Engineer, developed his career in the professional management of major projects and has subsequently run several companies and held directorships up to Plc level. Rob is a Governor at his local Church of England School and Church Warden and active member of his local Church in Shropshire.
	Stewart Bradley: Stewart is a Solicitor with over 30 years experience of the Housing Association movement, dealing with special needs as well as general housing matters. He has been associated with the Stockport/Hyde project since its inception in the 1980's and has been a Board member for several years, having chaired the North West regional committee until the abolition of that tier of governance. Stewart chairs the Remuneration Committee of Adullam.

Colin Crabtree: Colin has been involved with the Association since 1996. Colin's professional career is as a Chartered Quantity Surveyor, a qualification which he has held for over 40 years, therefore benefiting the Association greatly by his knowledge and experience concerning matters of building construction and building contracts. Colin is also a trustee of a number of Charitable Trusts involved with the provision of homes and care for the elderly. Colin chairs the Stock Investment and Asset Management Committee of Adullam.

Chris Goodrich: Chris Goodrich is a Management and IT Consultant. He has a wide experience of Housing Associations, Local Authorities and the voluntary sector extending over almost 30 years gained as a National Housing Federation Regional Manager, and as a Local Authority Chief Officer. Over time, Chris has been a board member of a number of Housing Associations ranging from small, community based ones through to large national organisations. He has also spent some time as a Housing Corporation special appointee. A keen Worcester Warriors supporter and amateur photographer.

Richard Lethbridge: Richard was born in Chesterfield and lived and worked there until 1999 when he moved to Codsall in Staffordshire with his work. He has over 18 years experience of working in a local authority financial environment including corporate accounting, and 4 years as the Technical Services Accountant for North East Derbyshire District Council. In 2004 he was appointed as Finance Manager to Bromsgrove District Housing Trust, and has subsequently been appointed as Group Head of Finance to housingplus. He qualified as member of CIPFA in 1997. Richard is also a member of Adullam's Audit and Compliance Committee.

Christine Allen: Chris is the Chief Executive of Forum Housing Association where she has worked for over 20 years. Chris brings Supported Housing knowledge and experience to the Board alongside a wider knowledge and experience of the Social Housing sector. Chris is heavily involved in her local church as a Trustee and Leader. She is particularly interested in developing the skills of emerging Leaders. Chris is a Justice of the Peace in the Wirral area which is where she lives. She is also a Director of Greater Merseyside Connexions Partnership and keen to see young people educated and employed. Chris is married, has 2 sons and 3 grandchildren. Chris is a member of the Remuneration Committee.

Helen Woodhall: Helen has a wide range of experience in paid and unpaid roles within the voluntary sector and housing associations with a particular interest in housing and community development. She currently works as Area Manager for MHA Care Group responsible for some of their community based, Live at Home schemes, which offer care and support for older people. A life-long Methodist, she has served a term as one of the Trustees of the Methodist Church in Britain and has served on its Strategy and Resources Committee. Helen lives in South Birmingham and has two teenage sons.
