

The Adullam Excellence and Inclusion Awards 2026

Midlands

Community Award nomination

The Adullam Excellence and Inclusion Awards 2026 are designed to celebrate the successes and achievements of tenants, residents, and service users in our Midlands Locality who are currently receiving or have received services from Adullam Homes Housing Association since the previous event, on September 18, 2025.

This award can be presented for a whole service coproduction activity, action delivered by a group of tenants, residents, or service users, and/or to an individual in recognition of them getting involved in their local community, with partner organisations, or as part of activities/sports groups in their area.
